

The beauty of homeschooling is that it can be tailored to the needs of your family, and this includes the need to get back on track!

First, let's identify your problems and challenges:

- Too tired /exhausted most days
 - Can't keep up with curriculum
 - Kids would rather play than study
 - I've discovered that my goals/plans aren't realistic
 - I didn't start off with concrete goals
 - Life gets in the way
 - Family hardship
 - Not organized
 - Other
-

Now, let's come up with solutions to those specific difficulties:

See the notes on Lost Off the Trail page of website for help with this.